LONG LIVE THE KING OF CAMBODIA
Dear CAS Students,

Another school year is almost over. WOW! Where has it gone? We have enjoyed many new activities this year such as Creation Week, Week of Prayers, Art Class painting the murals on the fence, singing at Christmas and the La Royal Hotel, Dramas, Vespers, Art and Science Fair, High School Intramurals, and Olympic Games for High School to name just a few. We have had some great times this year.

Jesus is our example and He has promised to show us the way to His Father’s house, if we will listen to His Word as it speaks to our heart.

Some of you will be leaving CAS at the end of this year, we will miss you. Graduates as you leave CAS remember that our prayers go with you. Jesus is always with you wherever you go, but CAS is here waiting for you to come back and see us at Alumni each year.

As the rest of you leave CAS for the summer I hope you have a relaxing summer. My prayer is that you always remember Jesus is watching over you. I will see you in August when you return to CAS for another fun filled year of learning and new adventures at CAS.

Hope to see you all again,

Sharon Rogers
Train up a child in the way he should go, Even when he is old he will not depart from it.
Prayer 22:6
Choose you this day whom you will serve, but as for me and my house we will serve the Lord.

Our greatest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that frightens us. We ask ourselves, who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, and fabulous?

Actually who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small doesn’t serve the world. There’s nothing enlightening about shrinking so other people won’t feel insecure around you.

We were born to manifest the Glory of God that is within us. It’s not just in some; it’s in all, everyone. And as we let our own light shine we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.

FRUITS OF THE SPIRIT

Love
And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your strength.
Deuteronomy 6:5 (NLT)

Peace
May the Lord show favor toward you, and give you peace.
Numbers 6:26 (NLT)

Faithfulness
Great is Your Faithfulness.
Lamentations 3:20b (NASB)

Love and Peace

Gentleness
Pursue a godly life, along with faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness.
1 Timothy 6:11b (NLT)

Patience
Meanwhile, the saints stand passionately patient, keeping God's commands, staying faithful to Jesus.
Revelation 14:12 (The Message)

Self-Control
A person without self-control is like a house with its doors and windows knocked out.
Proverbs 25:28 (The Message)

Goodness
But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.
Galatians 5:22-23a (NIV)

Joy
My heart leaps for joy and I will give thanks to him in song.

Christmas is the time of the year to celebrate love, family, friends ..... and it’s also a time remind us of Christ who came to serve us. That act of service is an example for our service towards humanity.
we don't know what to do except use the same V style

The Climb

There’s always going to be another mountain
I’m always going to want to make it move
It’s always going to be an uphill battle
And sometimes I will have to lose
It’s not about how fast I get there
It’s not about what’s waiting on the other side
It’s the climb!
I want to thank each one of you for helping make this yearbook a successful one. What is best in this year book is owed to you all. May blessings and fortune be yours in the many years to come. God bless! Teacher Moses
