LONG LIVE THE KING OF CAMBODIA
Dear CAS Staff and Students,

Another year is almost over here at Cambodia Adventist School. The year has flown by. We have had a good year together. We have grown in many ways – spiritually, physically and mentally.

It is my prayer that you will all have a relaxing summer. While you are on summer break the CAS Staff will be busy planning another spiritual, fun and busy year for 2012-2013.

The CAS Staff and I will be very happy to see your smiling face again next school year.

Remember God has a plan for each of you - if you will follow Him. I am praying for each of you as you grow in your spiritual walk with God.

I want to thank each of you for choosing CAS.

The CAS Staff, students and I will miss the senior class of 2012. There will be a hole at CAS without them next year. Life is like that we come together for a while. Then someone moves on to higher education or starts a new career. It will be wonderful when we all get to Heaven and never part again!

With love from Teacher Sharon

At some point in almost everyone’s life, there is a thought about just what it would be like to be an Olympic medalist. To be the best in the world at your favorite sport. Well here at Cambodia Adventist School, we’ve got the next best thing, Olympic Days! Each class competes in different sporting activities, such as, high jump, weight lifting, relay races, and much more! This year, each class did such an amazing job and really gave their all to every event they participated in. Great job to all of your who earned a medal, and for those of you who didn’t, we hope to see you back next year working towards being the Olympic medalist we all know you can be!
MIDDLE SCHOOL
It’s always fun to take part in the activities that happen on Olympics day, but for me, it’s so much fun to just watch them. Each of you gives your all and with that comes tears, laughing, happiness, and sadness and whether you win or you lose, your class is there supporting you every step of the way. I can’t help but to think that that’s how God feels about us, in this race called life. He’s looking down at us and He gets happy when we’re happy, and sad, when we’re sad. The best part of this is, that He’s always there to run to. Whether we win, or we lose, as long as we accept God’s love, it’ll always be there. He is your support system. Gold medal or not, He loves you, and you’re a winner in His eyes. I hope that as the years pass and you continue this Olympic Day tradition here at Cambodia Adventist School, that you remember that there is more to these events than just winning. It’s about helping your classmates, your friends, to become winners as well. May you all find God here on this campus and know that each of you is already a WINNER in the eyes of God.
The Christmas program was one of the many events the students got to be a part of this year. They were excited about being up front and loved to sing and learn new songs. This program was a little different from the others, and we tried to give the message that Christmas is a time to love, to share, and to remember what Christ has done for us. Every student that participated in the program, from Pre-Kindergarten to 12th grade, did a really good job. Not just singing or performing the play, but also in sharing their talents and their willingness to work together.” – Teacher Michelle
CHRISTMAS IS A TIME TO LOVE
“We’re so very proud of our Special Choir this year! You guys did a wonderful job! Thank you for taking your time to be a part of this group! We hope to have you back with us for next year’s adventures!”
Dear students,

First of all, we want you to know how much we love each of you. Every one of you is special to us in your own different and unique way. Secondly, we want you to know how thankful we are that you have given us the opportunity to spend this last year with you. Thank you for opening your hearts to us and allowing us to be a part of your lives. Words will never be able to explain how our lives have been changed by each of you. The difference you have made will stay within our hearts forever. Thirdly, just because we will not be here with you next year, doesn’t mean we have forgotten you. The days that you miss us, we will be missing you also. When you have a rough day at school, we’ll be wishing we were here to help you. We love you just as much as you love us and will be thinking of you often. And lastly, but most importantly, we will be praying for each of you. Praying that you chose God daily in your life and that you grow to see how important it is to know Him. Praying that you stay strong in your faith, even in the toughest of times, and that you help bring others to know God and show them how to love Him with their whole heart. Students of CAS it has been our pleasure to spend this last year with you all. It has been life changing to see each of you grow and learn and it is our hope, our prayer, that you continue to grow into the beautiful people we know that you are and can be. May God be with each of you now and until the day we meet again, when Jesus returns.

With so much love,

Your volunteers –

Teacher Michelle and Teacher Cayla
Smiles, laughs, & friendships made to last!
